Scholarship Requirements

- Scholarships awards are limited to two (to the same person) and they may not be in consecutive years.
- FWA scholarships fund only the cost of attendance to the workshop/event and any applicable model fees.
- Applications are accepted by FWA from September 1 through May 15.
- Applications must be received by FWA at least 45 days prior to the date of the event.

After the workshop/event, you must:

- Verify your attendance at the workshop/event. This may be a photo of you with the instructor/artist, a self-created sign-off sheet on which the instructor will verify your participation, etc.*
- Submit several photos of your work created during the workshop/event.*
- Submit documentation that you attempted to participate in at least one western art show during the year of the award.

Documentation must be provided to FWA within two weeks of the workshop/event.*

I have read the requirements of the scholarship award, completed the application and, to the best of my knowledge, guarantee its accuracy and will comply with the requirements as stated.
